

17th Sunday after Pentecost

October 1, 2017

Guest Pastor Kenley Mann

Order of Service

“The Common Service” is a version of the historic liturgy of the Christian church. It became the service commonly used by English-speaking Lutherans in America and appeared as “The Order of the Holy Communion” in The Lutheran Hymnal. Today’s order is found in Christian Worship (CW) A Lutheran Hymnal on page 15.

Church Fall Clean-Up

Saturday, October 14, 2017 starting at 9:00 a.m.

Please make plans to come and help with the Church Fall Clean-Up. If you have any questions about the Fall Clean-Up, please speak with Chris Hinz.

We Need Your Help

Both the Fall Clean-Up and the setting-up of the Fellowship Hall for Pastor Kogler's retirement need your help.

The list of areas in the church that need attention will be out, and tables/chairs need to be set-up and decorated in the Fellowship Hall.

Fellowship Hall Preparation for Pastor Kogler's Retirement is Saturday, October 14 at 9:00 a.m.

Contact Bev Nuessmeier if you need more information.

Submission of information for calendar and newsletter

If you have church information for publication in either the November newsletter or the calendar, please send to church e-mail: emmanuelhudsonwi@gmail.com. Deadline is Wednesday, October 25th.

Calendars Available for Purchase

The high school youth group, IGNITE, has calendars available for purchase again this year. The money raised is used for youth activities. The cost for a calendar is $8. You may pick-up and pay for your calendar at the table in the narthex or Fellowship Hall. Please make checks out to: Emmanuel Lutheran Church.

Job Opportunity

Martin Luther College (MLC) is now accepting applications for one part-time Admissions Counselor. A comprehensive description of this position can be found at mlc-wels.edu/hr. Interested individuals should apply online. Applications will be accepted through 12:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 3, 2017. Additional information and details can be obtained by contacting the MLC Human Resources Office 507-354-8221.

Reformation Milestone: Celebration and Repentance

October 31, 2017, marks the 500th anniversary of the start of the Protestant Reformation, when Martin Luther posted his “95 Theses” on a church door in Germany. This wasn’t an unusual act at the time; Luther was simply welcoming scholarly debate. But his ideas opposing certain teachings and practices of the Roman Catholic Church led to a monumental shift in Christianity.

Along with other reformers, Luther taught that Scripture is the supreme authority for the believer; that salvation comes by grace alone, through faith alone; and that baptism gives all full access to God in Christ (“the priesthood of all believers”), so there's no need for an intermediary such as a pope, priest or saint.

Initially, the reformers intended not to leave the Catholic Church but to reform it. But those who protested church practices became known as Protestants, and eventually, multiple denominations arose — Lutheranism, Presbyterianism, Anglicanism and others — and did, in fact, separate from the Roman tradition.

Sadly, woven amid the good intentions to rightly teach and live the faith were sins on all sides: Luther hurled insults “with the best of them”; the pope excommunicated him and had other reformers executed; the beliefs and faith of theological opponents were regularly disparaged. As Heinz Josef Algermissen, a present-day Roman Catholic bishop in Germany, states: “In commemorating the Reformation, we cannot just see it as a jubilee, but should also admit our guilt for past errors and repent on both sides for the past 500 years.”
